

This right turn is off a busy road onto a very minor one. Expect to have to wait for gaps in oncoming traffic.

This is a roundabout. There is lots of oncoming traffic.

Fast downhill, with lots of traffic overtaking you.

It will be a relief to turn into Croy here. Watch out for the traffic-calming devices and the very welcome convenience store.

This right turn and the following roundabout will steal your momentum, which is a shame because you're about to go up a steep hill.

You'll need to cross the road and jump onto the path to get to the correct platform.

This right turn is easy - you have traffic lights to keep you safe.
