

Eleanor Emberson added 2 new photos — with Bruce Ryan at Český Krumlov Castle.

Cold but sunny day in Bohemia, nosing around the old town and climbing the castle tower. The castle is built right into the rock and has this three-level bridge (star of many, many postcards) between the main building and the old castle theatre. Apparently the levels of the bridge match the levels of seating in the theatre, so the posh crowd didn't have to mix with the folks from the cheap seats.
